Paid Holidays

- Employees scheduled full-time on a holiday, will be paid regular working hours plus 8 hours for the holiday (4 hours for part-time employees).
- To qualify for holiday pay, employees must work their scheduled day before and after the holiday. If an employee is sick on their scheduled day before or after the holiday, a doctor's note is required when returning to work in order to be paid.
- Full-time employees receive eight hours pay and part-time employees receive four hours pay for each holiday. Casual, seasonal, and temporary employees do not qualify for holiday pay (unless otherwise specified by local policy).
- Holidays cannot be entered while an employee is on a leave of absence.

Additional Notes:

- Please check with your supervisor before scheduling time off.
- Any unused holidays are not paid out upon termination.
